FEATURING JEN HATMAKER

Hatmaker is a blogger, author, pastor's wife and mom of five. Last year she and her family showcased their re-do skills on HGTV's "My Big Family Renovation". This year they're helping others on "Your Big Family Renovation". Jen love Jesus; the way He loved outcasts and His genius teachings that are still relevant today. She wants to be a champion of grace and goodness, and her pimento cheese recipe is out-of-this-world! Jen and her family live in their refurbished home in Austin, TX.
